ENGAGING EMPLOYERS: STRENGTHENING MENTORSHIP AND TRAINING IN THE WORKPLACE

Engaging Employers: Workshops on Workplace Mentoring and On-the-Job Training

In recent months, our project partners have successfully organized workshops focused on workplace mentoring and on-the-job training activities to support the integration of young migrant and refugee NEETs. These sessions provided employers with practical tools and strategies to foster inclusive workplaces and enhance training practices.

DIGITAL TOOLKIT: YOUR KEY TO INCLUSIVE WORKPLACE TRAINING

We are thrilled to introduce the Newcomers@Work Digital Toolkit, now available on our website! This innovative and customizable resource provides a variety of practical tools to support effective workplace training and mentoring.

It includes comprehensive mentoring guides, customizable training materials, best practices from diverse European labor markets, and strategies for fostering an inclusive and productive workplace. Whether you are an employer preparing newcomers for seamless workplace integration or looking to develop inclusive training programs, the Digital Toolkit offers the guidance and resources you need.

NATIONAL CONFERENCES: UPDATES FOR STAKEHOLDERS AND YOUTH

Several of our partners have successfully hosted National Conferences, bringing together stakeholders, employers, youth workers, and young NEETs. These events provided a platform for sharing the latest project results, discussing challenges in integrating young migrants into the labor market, and fostering cooperation between key players in the social economy.

The conferences highlighted the importance of mentorship, employer engagement, and tailored training programs, offering valuable insights for future actions.

THE MOST DYNAMIC PHASE OF THE PROJECT BEGINS!

We are now entering the most active phase of the Newcomers@Work project. In the coming months, we will connect 350 employers with 350 young NEETs, fostering real employment opportunities and strengthening workplace inclusion. At the same time, we will develop the Newcomers@Work Implementation Guide, a resource that will support organizations in effectively integrating young migrants into their workforce.

LET'S GET TO KNOW OUR TEAM!
